The Daily Courant.

Friday, June 21. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Rome, June 5.

THE Pope has accepted Signior Philippucci's Renunciation of the Cardinalship, but has assign'd him the Pension usually allow'd to poor Cardinals. 'Tis talk'd that in 2 or 3 Days he will create a new Cardinal, and also declare him that he has reserv'd in Petto. The Ambassador of Maltha has notified to his Holiness, that the Maltheſe Galleys have taken near the Island of Zant, the Admiral of the Corsairs of Tunis, carrying 48 Guns and 350 Men.

Basil, June 17. The Marquis of Bereti Landi Ambassador of Spain, uses his best Endeavours to prevail with the Roman Catholick Cantons, to ratify before the End of this Month, their new Treaty of Alliance with the Milaneze in Favour of Philip V, and to do it at Lucerne contrary to ancient Custom: But those Cantons before they yield to it, are willing to see the Effects of the Promise he made them during the last Diet, to pay them this Month all the Arrears of Subsidies due to them from the Crown of Spain. Besides, 'tis very probable, that the raising of the Siege of Barcelona, the Retreat of Philip V to Roussillon, and the Progress of the Allies in Brabant since the Victory they won over the Army of the 2 Crowns at Ramelies, will induce the said Cantons to act deliberately and warily; the rather because several Persons that make a Figure in the Government of these Cantons, and are esteem'd good Patriots, openly oppose the ratifying the said Treaty solemnly by Oath as usual; alledging that Treaty ought not to have been made with King Philip V, but with the State of Milan in general Terms. The Emperor's Minister residing at Coire, has receiv'd Order from his Imperial Majesty, to oppose vigorously the Conclusion of the Alliance that is on Foot between the Republick of Venice and the Grisons; and the Minister of France residing also at Coire having receiv'd like Order from his Master, Signior Bianchi will find it difficult to succeed in his Negociation of that Alliance.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 26.

Francfort, June 20. The French Army is at present posted in several Camps from Spire and Neustad to Strasbourg. On Monday last 20 Battallions, 3 Regiments of Carabineers, and 1 of Horse, were detach'd from that Army, for the Netherlands. The Marshal de Villars has supplied their Room with Militia, having but 10000 Men regular Troops left. His Horse which lay about Homburg, Hornbach and Bitsch, is likewise march'd to reinforce the Elector of Bavaria's Army in the Netherlands. A Party of the Garison of Landau having taken an Express who was going with Letters from the French Court to the Marshal de Villars, the Officer that commanded that Party has sent those Letters to Prince Lewis of Baden. A Bridge is got ready at Heidelberg, but 'tis not yet known when or where 'tis design'd to be us'd. The Imperial Army continues encamp'd at Linkenheim, but is in no Condition to attempt to pass the Rhine. The Administrators of the Government of the Electorate of Bavaria for the Emperor, having had Intelligence given them that the late Elector has sent privately for a Supply of a certain Sum of Money from his quondam Subjects, have forbidden the collecting of any such Supply under very severe Penalties.

Hanover, June 22. The 13th in the Evening the King of Prussia left Berlin, accompanied by the Prince Royal his only Son, and attended by a very numerous Retinue: The 14th in the Morning early he came to Tangermunde, where he rested the 15th, and the 16th about Noon arriv'd here. A Mile and a half without the Town his Majesty was met by our Elector, the Electoral Prince his Son, and Prince Ernest Augustus his Brother; at his Arrival his Majesty was saluted with a triple Discharge of the Cannon on our Ramparts, and being conducted to the Palace, was receiv'd at his alighting out of his Coach by the Electoress Dowager and the two Princesses, and was conducted to the great Hall through an Anti-Chamber, where the Elector's Guards stood drawn up in 2 Ranks, and thence to his Apartment, his Majesty leading the Electress. His Majesty and the Prince Royal din'd with the Elector, the Electress Dowager, the Electoral Prince and the Princess his Wife, the Electoral Princess, and Prince Ernest Augustus; and was entertain'd then, (as he has been since,) in a very splendid Manner. The same Evening his Majesty ask'd the Electoral Princess, in Marriage for the Prince Royal; and the 17th his Majesty declar'd at Table that the Match was agreed. The 18th the Articles of the Contract of Marriage were exchanged, as is the Custom in Germany; the betrothed Prince and Princess were congratulated by all the Persons of Quality, Salvoes of Cannon were given, and other usual Demonstrations of Rejoycing made. That Evening there was a great Ball at Court, where the King of Prussia and the Electress Dowager danc'd first, and after them the Elector and the Princes, Princesses, and Persons of Quality, according to their Rank. The 20th the King set out for Cleves, the same Honour being paid him and the Artillery discharg'd as at his Arrival. The Solemnity of the Marriage is deferr'd till his Return.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 24.

Hildesheim, June 18 'Tis reported that M. van Galen, one of the Canons of Munster, being already assur'd of 18 Voices of that Chapter, will very probably be chosen Bishop of Munster.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 25.

Amsterdam, June 24. The Order of the States appointing the general Thanksgiving that was observ'd Yesterday, was as follows.

Whereas

'Whereas God was pleas'd of his infinite Mercy, to bless the Arms of this State and its high Allies, the 23d of last Month, when it was least expected, and when affairs look'd very dubious on all Sides; by giving us a signal Victory over our Enemies, and by striking them with a panick Fear, which made them abandon the Field, with the greatest part of the most considerable Towns of Brabant and Flanders: And whereas, by divine Providence, the Fleet of England and this State, arriv'd with Succours at the City of Barcelona, just when it was reduc'd to the last Extremities, so that the Enemy were oblig'd to raise the Siege with great Precipitation; while on another side the Army of the Allies penetrated from Portugal into Spain; from which, among other Blessings, there is Ground to expect great Progresses for the Good of the Common Cause: For these Causes the States General of the united Provinces of the Netherlands, considering all these great and happy Successes, in which the wonderful Hand of God is so very visible, and desiring to render him all the Glory of them, and shew publickly their grateful Acknowledgments for the same, have thought fit to order a Day of Thanksgiving to be observ'd the 23d of June; that in all the Churches of these Provinces Solemn Thanks and Praise may that Day be render'd to the Almighty, for all the Benefits that he has so often bestow'd on our dear Country in its great Distresses; and that he may be humbly besought, with sincere Confession of our Unworthyness and with true Repentance and Contrition, to continue his Blessings on the Arms of this State and its Allies, to the End they may prosper more and more; that the Pride of the Enemy may be brought down; and that this bloody War may terminate in a solid and lasting Peace, &c.

Deal, June 19. Her Majesty's Ships the Nassaw and Fly Brigantine, with 4 or 5 Victualers from Dover, sail'd to Day to joyn the Squadron commanded by Sir Stafford Fairborne before Ostend.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, to Morrow being Saturday, the 22d of June, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Northern Lass, or, The Nest of Fools. With a Masque set to Musick by the late Mr. Henry Purcell, perform'd originally in the Play of Timon of Athens. And several Entertainments of Dancing by Mrs. Cross, Mrs Evans, and others.

This Play is Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott Next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

An Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening, at 7 a Clock at the Crown Tavern in Smithfield. Price 1 s.

To be Sold in Mincing-lane, in a Vault under a Glaziers House, a large quantity of old French Brandy, Bourdeaux and Coniacks, by the Gallon, Puncheon or Pipe. The Bourdeaux at 7 s per Gallon, and the Coniacks at 7 s. 6 d. To continue every day till all are sold.

At a Person of Quality's House the corner of Prince's-street in Red Lyon Square, on Friday the 21st Instant will be expos'd to Sale all sorts of Houshold Goods, viz. Damask Beds, tapestry Hangings, Chimney Glasses, Pear Glasses, Chests of Drawers, Plate, Linin, Pictures, Pewter, Brass, Grates, a Leaden Ciftern, &c. The Goods may be view'd all Wednesday and Thursday the two days before the Sale, and Catalogues may be had at the Place of Sale. Note, the Sale begins at 10 a Clock precisely.

This Day, and To Morrow will continue the Sale of Books, at the Blue Anchor in Duck-lane, the Prizes are set on the first Leaf, amongst them are a great many very scarce Law Books, as likewise Hammond's Works 4 Vols. Ogleby's in 12 Vols. Rushworth in 8. Clarendon's History large Paper 3 Vols. new, Cooper's Dict. interleav'd 2 Vols. Eusebius Eng. Linschoteen's Travels with the Habits, Fuller's Church History, his Worthies, Clark's Examples 2 Vols. Turkish Hist. 3 Vols. Cave's Lives of the Fathers 2 Vols. L'Estrange's Æsop compleat, Plutarch's Lives and Morals 10 Vols. Montaigne's Essays 3. State Poems 3. Ovid var. 3. with Pamphlets Antient and Modern, and Spanish, Italian, French and Dutch Books

The Library of Dr Humphreys, late Lecturer of St Andrew's Holborn, will begin to be Sold by Auction on Monday the 24th Instant at Tom's Coffee-House adjoyning to Ludgate, being a curious Collection in Greek, Latin, and English, most gilt or letter'd on the Back; also the Glass Cases in which the said Books stood are to be sold at a Reasonable Rate: Enquire at the Place of Sale. Note, Catalogues will be distributed this day at the Green Dragon without Temple-Bar, Mr Coggan's in the Inner Temple-Lane Mr. Bowyer's the corner of Ludgate-street, Mr. Aylmer over against the Royal Exchange, Mr. Nowell in Duck-Lane, and at the Place of Sale.

Propositions for Printing by Subscription Mathesis Juvenilis; or, A Course of Mathematicks for the use of young Students, &c. Containing plain and easy Treatises, by way of Question and Answer in Arithmetick, Geometry, Trigonometry, Fortification, Architecture, Statick, Mechanicks, Opticks, Catoptricks, Dioptricks, Astronomy, the use of the Globes, Chronology and Dialling, &c. made English from the Latin of J. Christopher Sturmius, Author of the Mathesis Enucleata. The Book with a very great many Copper Cutts will make 3 or 4 Volumes in 8vo. the same size as the Author's Book formerly publish'd, and is propos'd at 15 s. per Book, a 7th Gratis, which reduces it to about 12 s. 10 d. per Book, to any but Subscribers it will not be sold under 18 s. The Undertaker is D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Subscriptions are desir'd to be sent in before the 24th of June, the Book being then to be put to the Press and but few more to be printed than are subscrib'd for.

Whereas Proposals for Reprinting all the Practical Works of the late Reverend Mr. Richard Baxter, in 4 Volumes in Folio, have for some Time been Publish'd, the Undertakers having receiv'd incouragement from several Reverend Divines and others, of the Church of England, and Dissenters; intend, God willing, forthwith to put the said Work to the Press, and therefore desire all such as have obtain'd Subscriptions, and not yet paid in the first Payment, or who are inclin'd to promote so good a Work, to hasten the doing of it, to any of the Undertakers, Tho Parkhurst, Jonathan Robinson or John Lawrence, that they may be enabled to know what Number to print, and thereby prevent the Common Abuse to Subscribers, and keep up the price of the said Book, they intending as near as possible to print such Number only as shall be subscrib'd for.

The finest Lucarelius Balsam that ever was made in England, to which is now added the true Balm of Gilead and 3 or 4 other rich Balsamicks, which makes it a Noble and Efficacious Medicine in all Inward Strains, Bruises, Pleuritick Pains, Ulcers of the Lungs or any Inward part, Coughs, Shortness of Breath, Spitting of Blood, or Bloody Flux, it relieves the Pains in the Kidneys thro' Stone, Gravel, or Sharpness of Urine, causing the Water to slide away easily. Taken at Night going to Bed it eases Tickling Coughs wonderfully and gives Rest; 'tis of such a soft healing Nature it Cures Chopt Nipples, Lips and Hands presently, making them smooth and soft; and Cutts and green Wounds it helps in 48 Hours. The Author has left it to be sold only at Mr John How's in Talbot Court in Grace-Church-street, and at Mr Smith's the Post-Office in Covent-Garden, at 1 s a Pot with Directions, each Pot being now (and will always be) seal'd with the Author's own Seal the Sun Flower Mantle and Creest, if not 'tis a Counterfeit.

A safe Cure for the worst of Corns, following but the Directions nothing can exceed it; its not only a pretended noble Cure, but a real and effectual, keeping the Feet easy and free from Pain till you are intirely rid of them; and not only differing from all others, but was practis'd many Years by this Author before any thing was publish'd in Imitation of it. It is to be had at Mrs. Garroways at the South entrance of the Royal Exchange, at Mrs. Forster's a Toy-shop at the Hospital-gate West-Smithfield, at Mr. Besouth's a Cutlers Shop at the Sign of the Ship on the middle of London Bridge, at Mrs. Edmond's the corner of Beerbinder-Lane Stocks-Market, at Mr Standish at the Black-Boy just without Bishops-gate, and no where else. Seal'd up with a Dove carrying an Olive-branch, price 6 d.

ADVERTISEMENT.

A Companion for the Country Malster, or the whole Art of Gauging Malt in the Ciftern, on the Couch, and in the Chamber, plainly laid down, and the Duty Chargeable by Act of Parliament on any quantity of Wet Barley, by several easie Rules readily discover'd. With two useful Tables exactly Calculated, the first turning any Number of solid Inches into Bushels. The other shewing, what Duty any Number of Bushels is chargeable with, and must pay after deduction of the fifth part. By William Barnes of Bishops-Stortford. Printed for Robert Knaplock at the Angel and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price 1 s.

The Clarks Tutor in Chancery, giving true Directions by authentick Precedents how to draw Affidavits, Petitions, Interlocutory Orders, Reports before Masters, Bills, Answers, Pleas or Demurrers, with a new Collection of special Writts from the Doctets sign'd by the present Lord Keeper of the great Seal; with such Process, Proceedings, and other Instruments relating to Practice as are now in use in that High and Honourable Court: To which is prefix'd an Introduction with many Excellent Cases lately adjudged, Illustrating the Practice of that Court, and several Orders for Regulating the same. The 3d Edition. Sold by H. Mortlock at the Phoenix in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The New World of Words, or Universal English Dictonary, containing the Original or proper Sense and various significations of all hard Words deriv'd from other Languages, with a plain Explication of all Terms relating to any of the Arts and Sciences either Liberal or Mechanical, compil'd by E. Philipps, Gent. the Sixth Edition, with the addition of near 20000 Words from the best Authors. A Work very necessary for Strangers, as well as our own Countrymen, in order to the right understanding of what they Speak, Write, or Read. Sold by J. Taylor at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price 20 s.

A Treatise concerning the Divine Perfections and Persons, suited to ordinary Capacities, 8vo. price 6 d. Printed for Richard Wilkin at the King's Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

LONDON: Printed, and sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.